

LOCAL NEWS

From Thursday's Daily:

F. D. O. Foster of Sidney was in the city today on business.

Miss Mary Barry, clerk at the Bee Hive, was off duty today on account of illness.

C. F. Rankin returned to Alliance today from Denver where he has been working since November.

Mrs. Dan Lyons left today for Chadron to visit her parents for a few days.

Joe Wiker and Atty. J. L. Westover went to Crawford this morning on business.

A. G. Thomason, a traveling salesman from Denver, is in the city visiting the local trade.

Fred C. Garretson returned Wednesday from a month's trip, stopping at Big Springs, Lewellen, and Bridgeport.

Mrs. Addie Sewell who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Pate, a month past, returned to her home today at Danbury, Nebr.

Supt. W. M. Weidenhamer leaves tomorrow on 44 for Chicago to attend the meeting of operating officers in session April 6th, 7th and 8th.

Fred Black of Lakeside was in town today in the interest of the new bank they hope to open in Lakeside by June 1st.

C. W. Alloy, a traveling salesman making his headquarters at Hastings is in Alliance today calling on the merchants.

F. M. Knight returned Wednesday from a trip to Chicago and eastern Iowa, where he has been visiting his mother for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ware returned today from a tour thru the missions north and south of Mullen with Bishop Beecher.

Dr. Lee and Dr. Spencer, Alliance veterinary surgeons, took a trip out to Chas. Tiernan's ranch this morning on business.

John Togood of Columbus came in Wednesday to visit at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Minnie Sward, between trains, left today for Bridgeport.

Mrs. J. B. Lytle of Neligh stopped off in Alliance today between trains enroute to Bridgeport and Scottbluff to visit relatives and friends a few days.

Walter Owens of Utica, N. Y., and who formerly lived in Alliance, returned Wednesday to make this his home, and is learning the boiler-makers' trade.

Mrs. Forrester McGregor and her grandson, Donald Chester Nixon, stopped off in the city today between trains enroute to KallsPELL, Mont., from Denver where they have been visiting relatives.

C. C. Joy of Phoenix, Arizona, arrived yesterday to close up certain business in connection with the sale of his ranch here. Mr. Joy is well known to Alliance people, having lived in Box Butte county many years.

Miss Angela Ware returned this week from Mullen where she has been visiting Mrs. Chas. F. Gruenig accompanying her to visit at the Ware home a short time.

Fireman E. B. Homan returned Wednesday from a sixty days' trip to Arapahoe, Oklahoma, where he has been visiting his brother and sister. His brother Fred accompanied him upon his return and expects to make Alliance his future home.

A. D. Rodgers returned Wednesday afternoon from attending the funeral of his nephew, J. W. Rodgers, at Lynn, Nebraska.

From Friday's Daily:

Father Donnelly left this noon for a short trip to Whitman.

Henry Sagenauer has purchased the six room house of E. Becker on Niobrara avenue.

G. W. Wagner of Hemingford was down today to the hospital for an operation.

Mrs. J. T. Wiker and Mrs. F. M. Broome returned today from a week in Omaha visiting.

Mrs. Gus Appelberg left this noon for Scottbluff, where she will stay over Sunday with her husband.

Mrs. H. J. Dinwiddle of St. Joe came in today to visit at the home of Mrs. C. W. Barnum.

Mrs. B. I. Joder and daughter Avila left on 303 today for Denver on a business trip for a few days.

The Choral Club will meet Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the parish house. Everyone is urged to attend.

John Dowling, formerly an Alliance breakman, recently of Chadron, returned Wednesday night, and expects to make this his home.

The Silent Stitches met Wednesday evening at the home of Misses Mabel and Marie Carey. Misses Virginia Broome and Jane Taylor were club guests of honor. Delicious refreshments were served, and a very pleasant evening enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Watson came over to Alliance on Thursday from their home at Mitchell, in their Ford automobile. They returned this afternoon.

Miss Eunice Burnett and her guest, Miss Lillian Merz, of Chicago, left this noon for Miss Burnett's ranch near Mullen for a short stay. Miss Burnett was called there on business.

Deuel county's treasurer, Henry Peterson, of Chappell, was in town Wednesday in the interest of the new Lakeside bank. He returned to his home last night.

Try the new store, 210 W. 3d St. Now open for business with a full line of fresh groceries, cigars, tobaccos and candy. M. Byrne, Prop.

Mrs. Mary Hunsaker came down from Hemingford Wednesday to visit at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunsaker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunsaker and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Whetstone until Sunday. She expects to go to her homestead near Lakeside.

Gen. Supt. E. E. Young came in today from a business trip to Omaha. Fred Garretson left Wednesday night for Chicago to visit his parents for

From Saturday's Daily:

Gladys Spencer went to Crawford Thursday to visit friends a few days.

J. E. Rice returned Friday morning from a business trip to Omaha.

Elias Miller has been ill for some time.

Mrs. Ruth McCarthy of Bingham came down Thursday on business, returning today.

W. M. Wilson left Friday evening for Denver on a business trip taking a couple of days.

E. B. Baldwin, an automobile man from Central City, was in Alliance yesterday.

J. S. Kennedy of Bingham, Nebr., is in Alliance today. A. J. Hill of Ellsworth was in town today on business. Marvin, son of L. P. Dickinson, has been ill the last few days.

B. E. Joy left last night for his home in Phoenix, Ariz., after spending several days in Alliance.

G. Mennicke, a hide buyer from Grand Island, is in Alliance today calling on the local dealers.

Chas. Wallace and W. J. Weddle, stockmen from Hemingford, are in Alliance today.

M. L. Miller, the owner of the Hemingford mills is in Alliance today.

Edna Bullock was operated upon this morning at St. Joseph's hospital. She is doing nicely.

Mrs. Pearl Lawrence was in town Friday from Hemingford for medical treatment.

Frank Johns, a representative of the Dolan Fruit Company of Grand Island, is in Alliance today. Mr. Johns is a new man in this territory.

Mrs. Keith Pierce and Miss Dollie Pierce of Hemingford came down yesterday in a car to do some shopping.

Ethel Whetstone, apprentice girl in Harper's millinery department, was off duty today on account of illness.

F. J. Ferguson of Malinda, Nebr., is in Alliance. Mr. Ferguson was for many years a traveling salesman in this territory. He is now engaged in the buying and selling of stock.

W. F. Cunningham, a novelty salesman from Van Tassel, Wyoming, is in Alliance today calling on the merchants.

W. R. Preston of Mirrill, Nebr., is in Alliance. Mr. Preston is on his way home from Omaha where he went recently to sell a shipment of sheep.

E. M. Banks was in town today from Kilpatrick's ranch on business.

Mrs. T. B. Shrewsbury is up from the ranch at Ellsworth visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jack Berry.

Miss Mabel Worley returned Friday from Lincoln where she has been attending the university. She has given up her musical course for this year in order to accompany her father to Thermopolis, Wyoming, for the benefit of his health.

John Dowling left this morning for Hot Springs and Deadwood to visit a couple of weeks. Will stop off in Hot Springs to visit his sister, Miss Mary Dowling, a trained nurse.

Miss Barbara King of Hot Springs who has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Maggie Barry, for a couple of weeks, returned to her home, Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Darling, with their son Duane, returned today at noon from their extended western at California points, stopping at other points enroute.

William Robinson was fined $5 and costs today in Judge Zurn's police court on a charge of disorderly conduct. Robinson liquidated and was released.

Mrs. M. D. Wadell, owner of the Waddell hotel at Hemingford, is in Alliance today.

Supt. G. L. Griggs of the Sterling division of the Burlington, came in Friday noon on a business trip from Sterling, Colorado.

Try the new store, 210 W. 3d St. Now open for business with a full line of fresh groceries, cigars, tobaccos and candy. M. Byrne, Prop.

Mrs. Melvin Miller and Miss Mame Miller were down from Hemingford Thursday to attend the School of Music students' recital.

Mrs. John Wiker and Mrs. F. M. Broome returned yesterday from a business and pleasure trip to Omaha. They visited at the homes of Mesdames Joe McNamara, Fred McDonald and Dennody.

J. H. Gadbury of Tama, Iowa, is spending a few days in Alliance looking over the country. Mr. Gadbury is taking advantage of his stay here by having some dental work done by one of the local dentists.

From Monday's Daily:

Luke Phillips and Elmer Vaughn of Hemingford are in Alliance today. A new tub is being added to the equipment of the Alliance Steam Laundry.

O. J. Scribner, a resident of Hay Springs, was a visitor in Alliance yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Wilson of Ellsworth are in Alliance on business today.

Among the Ellsworth people in Alliance today are W. N. Matthews, C. S. Sowers and William Minnick.

T. W. Brown and William Miller of Lakeside are transaction business in Alliance.

J. W. Guthrie in company with a number of his friends motored out to Pine Ridge yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Wolverton and Mrs. Frank Carter left today for Omaha where they will make a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rowan motored out to the Dave Briggs ranch in Sheridan county yesterday.

Harry Dubuque, together with a party of friends, motored out Chadron road yesterday to the Pine Ridge.

Mrs. Jackman, mother of Dr. Charles Jackman, came in Friday from Chicago to make her home with her son.

F. H. Smith, a merchant from Antioch, together with his daughters, spent yesterday in Alliance visiting friends.

F. W. Hicks, clerk at the post office, returned Saturday from Algona, Ia., where he went to attend the funeral of his stepfather.

Judge W. W. Wood, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Wilma, left Saturday for a short visit in Montana.

F. W. Hicks returned today from Algona, Iowa, where he was called on account of the death of his stepfather.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Jameson are in Alliance today from the Spade ranch near Ellsworth. Mrs. Jameson is on her way home from a visit of Hay Springs and Mr. Jameson came here to meet her.

Lee Arnold, who underwent an operation for appendicitis two weeks ago at the home of Mrs. Lucy Siseck, in Alliance, returned to his home today in Ellsworth. He has fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Laing arrived Sunday morning on the Denver train for a visit at the home of their son, E. G. Laing. They have been spending the winter in Los Angeles, Calif. and are now on the way to their home in Jerico, Mo.

The regular meeting of the city council will be held at the council chamber Tuesday evening at the regular hour notwithstanding the election that is to be held tomorrow.

Edgar Martin, the county treasurer, has been very busy the past few days receiving payment of real estate taxes which became delinquent May 1st, if not paid before.

The stone pillars for the court house which have been delaying the work on the north side of the building for some time, have arrived and are being placed today.

The small pox quarantine which was placed on the county jail two weeks ago when it was discovered that one of the inmates had the disease, will be raised within a day or two.

J. A. Mallory is on a business trip to Scottbluff.

Mrs. Cal Simpson and little daughter returned today from Santa Cruz, California, where they spent most of the winter.

Glen Frank, of Ardmore, S. Dak., took with him the Bee Hive dog which was given away.

James McCue and wife, who left Alliance about a year ago for Council Bluffs, Iowa, have returned here to make their home.

AUTOMOBILE ANNOUNCEMENT

We have a trio of the best made, most reasonably priced cars on the market and we earnestly solicit the public to see these cars, get familiar with them and learn their salient points. We have a car for every purse.

One price to all. Our sales rooms are located in the Alliance Garage. Inspect these cars.

Competent automobile man always in attendance.

PAIGE-DETROIT

Everything aristocratic except the price. Full electric equipment. Model 25 touring car or roadster, $1050. Model 36, touring car or roadster, $1375. These prices are for cars delivered in Alliance.

OVERLAND

More of these sold in Box Butte county last year than any other except the Ford. Model 35, touring or roadster, all full electric equipment, $1175. Delivered in Alliance.

FORD

Fully equipped Roadster, $550. Touring car, fully equipped, $600. These are Alliance prices. "Ford cars can go anywhere."

We Always Have on Hand a Full Stock of Ford, Paige and Overland Parts

Keeler-Coursey Company

JAMES KEELER, President,

H. P. COURSEY, Secretary and Treasurer,

J. T. GRAHAM, Salesmanager

Office and Salesroom at Alliance Garage